Dr. Joseph W. Cochrane,
156 Fifth Avenue,
New York City

My dear Dr. Cochrane:

I think it perfectly splendid to have you doing the piece of work you are for I know how much it means for you to leave your church and what it means to your congregation to have you leave. I came away from the meeting the other day feeling the whole amount would be raised.

The following is a list of names for your use:

Mrs. Edwin M. Bulkley,
Lydecker Street, Englewood, New Jersey

Mrs. Henry P. Davison,
690 Park Avenue, New York City

Mrs. Arthur Curtis James,

Letters from Board women giving names of individual givers.

From Miss Emma Jessie Ogg, Feb. 15, 1932:

In response to your request for names of people to be approached for special gifts, I have these few to suggest:

Miss Lilian Dauchy, Hotel Mohawk, 379 Washington Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y?
Mrs. George M. Boardman, 470 Ocean Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

and I suppose you have on your list already Miss Annie Hyatt, Hotel Bossert, Montague and Hick Streets, Brooklyn.

From Mrs. Lynn T. White, 124 Seminary Rd.,San Anselmo, Calif.- Feb. 7, 1932

How I wish I knew some women who had money these days! How gladly would I send their names. Mrs. Bancroft is home and I'm hoping to see her to-morrow. Together we may be able to think of some one who has not already given to her limit. Everyone has had to take salary cuts and what other income one has had is nearing the vanishing point. I think I have never seen so much distress as we've had out here this winter.

Was so happy to receive from Dr. and Mrs. Calfee a copy of his new book "What Next".

Miss Cameron, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Logan, Miss Wu and May Wong came to our house Friday evening, in spite of the continued downpour,"to meet" the faculty and students. We had a lovely "party". Miss Higgins and Mrs. Chan were coming from Ming Quong but Miss Higgins is nursing a cold and we thought she'd better not come in the rain.

Thursday, Feb. 11. San Rafael Church is having a "birthday party" to raise their budget. Miss C. and Mrs. Wilson are to be there so they are hoping for a crowd. We are having as guests of honor ladies between 80-90 years of whom we have a number now.

Mrs. Hockenbeamer and Mrs. Lloyd still have money but I think Miss Fraser is depending upon them to give to Presbyterial deficit.

My love and best wishes,

Babcock, Miss Helen — Bancroft

Evidently has money of her own - "fairy godmother" situation and Miss Torrence must be called on to help out. Last March someone who gave her name as Helen Babcock telephoned from Oakland and asked how to send $500 to the Board of National Missions to help toward the deficit!! I was away on a "tour" but Miss Christie told her how to get the money to New York, and a few other things! - and then hurried off a letter to Miss Torrence preparing her for the receipt of the $500 which Miss Babcock hoped would reach New York before the books close. Miss Christie's letter to Miss Torrence was dated March 28, 1930. You can trace from that. She did not seem to care to give her address to our office so Miss Christie didn't urge it. I have intended to try to trace her and follow this up - this may be the time. No one ever hears about her and we may find that she was a visitor here.
